

University of California, Davis
Graduate Education Task Force

Public Forum on the Future of Graduate Education at UC Davis – October 28th

The Provost and Executive Vice Chancellor, in partnership with the Academic Senate Chair and the Executive Council of the Academic Senate, has appointed the Graduate Education Task Force to inform the vision for graduate education at UC Davis.

Because graduate education is fundamental to our mission and identity as a top research university, we are developing a vision of excellence to guide our strategy. Your input is needed to imagine how graduate education promotes excellence for UC Davis, for graduate students and for faculty.

Be a part of the conversation on October 28th when the Graduate Education Task Force hosts a public forum at the UC Davis Conference Center with the following panel of visiting experts:

Joel Michaelsen, Professor, Department of Geography, Chair Academic Senate 2006-2008; 2008 – 2010, University of California, Santa Barbara

Steve Matson, Dean, The Graduate School; Professor, Department of Biology, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill

Frances Leslie, Dean, Graduate Division; Professor of Pharmacology, School of Medicine, University of California, Irvine

Date: Friday, October 28

Time: 1:00pm – 2:30pm

Location: UC Davis Conference Center – Ballroom B

The forum is open to anyone who would like to attend. For more information on the work of the task force, please visit:

<http://provost.ucdavis.edu/initiatives.html> (The Joint Administration/Academic Senate Special Task Force on Graduate Education at UC Davis)